Information – First consultation – Strengthening Competence

Are you looking for the right job, would like to reorient yourself professionally or strive towards further training?

The Bildungsberatung Nürnberg supports you independently and free of charge in your search for the educational path that best suits your personal situation

In a personal and intensive talk, our educational consultant offers:

- Information about professional and personal educational opportunities and their requirements
- Support in highlighting your personal skills
- Identification of your (individual) training needs
- Joint development of an individual educational plan and recommendation of concrete steps to achieve your personal goal
- Independent advice on suitable educational offers in Nuremberg and advice on what you should take into account when selecting educational offers
- Information on various financing options for your participation in educational offers

In addition to general educational counselling, the consultant also advises on related topics, such as the recognition of foreign qualifications or language advice, or will refer you to the respective specialist office within the Bildungszentrum (BZ) or in our Network.

Our educational consultant looks forward to talking to you!
